Comments

You can submit a comment using the comment box, and your comment is displayed at that timestamp when watching the video.

Most recent comments will supersede old comments at the same time.

Reactions

A user would click on the emoticons to submit a reaction at a specific time while watching the video. The reaction will show up when the video is played by other users at that specific time.

Comment Histogram
